Inventing The Future Postcapitalism And “Inventing the Future may be the shrewdest, sanest pipe dream of a book published since the recession.” —Nathan Heller, New Yorker “A powerful book: it not only shows us how the postcapitalist world of rapidly improving technology could make us free, but it also shows us how we can organise to get there. This is a must-read.” Inventing the Future (revised and updated edition ... However, he also argued that Inventing the Future and Paul Mason's PostCapitalism dispensed with ideas of humanism that, he claimed, should be central to a left-wing project: 'these books have been treated uncritically despite the
